

2025 FALL C999 Bachelor of Social Justice and Legal Studies ELECTIVE LIST

| | | | | |
|---|-------------------------------|------------------|-------------------------------|--------------------|
| BBIC 101 – Business: A Changing World | | | | |
| Foundations of Canadian business systems from historical, global, technological and dynamic perspectives. The objective is to introduce the student to the fundamentals of business and how the business environment is evolving due to the speed of technological advancements. | | | | |
| Section 001 - 1887 | Mondays 14:00-17:00 | Limit: 15 | Instructor: N. Rourke | Room: A2203 |
| BBIC 503 – Professional Negotiations for Success | | | | |
| Development of negotiation strategies incorporating negotiation and presentation skills with application of business and information technology theories. These theories encompass the science of securing agreements between two or more independent parties. | | | | |
| Section 001 - 1091 | Mondays 14:00-17:00 | Limit: 15 | Instructor: B. Rivard | Room: A3202 |
| CMST 111 – Personal Wellness | | | | |
| An examination of lifestyle behaviours, which have the power to enhance or diminish personal potential. Topics will include physical activity, our personal relationship with food and the impact of culture on our sense of self. Stress management, substance use/abuse, environmental awareness and the process of goal setting will also be discussed. | | | | |
| Section 001 - 1870 | Wednesdays 9:00-12:00 | Limit: 15 | Instructor: W. Lindsay | Room: A2144 |
| CMST 511 – Diverse Approaches to Work, Play and Leisure | | | | |
| This course introduces play from a historical and contemporary perspective including the factors that impact play as well as the relationships between work, play, and leisure. Special attention is given to the role of play in individual health and wellness. Consideration will also be given to the ways in which play relates to the economy, religion, sexuality, race, socio-economic status, and education. | | | | |
| Section 001 - 1236 | Wednesdays 13:00-16:00 | Limit: 15 | Instructor: C. Mao | Room: A1128 |

STUDENTS PLEASE NOTE: These are the only three elective choices that are eligible for students in the C999 Degree Program.