

2024 FALL C999 Bachelor of Social Justice and Legal Studies ELECTIVE LIST

BBIC 101 – Business: A Changing World

Foundations of Canadian business systems from historical, global, technological and dynamic perspectives. The objective is to introduce the student to the fundamentals of business and how the business environment is evolving due to the speed of technological advancements.

Section 001-1077	Tuesdays 11:00-14:00 ONLINE	Limit: 10	Instructor: N. Rourke	Room: N/A
-------------------------	------------------------------------	------------------	------------------------------	------------------

BBIC 503 – Professional Negotiations for Success

Development of negotiation strategies incorporating negotiation and presentation skills with application of business and information technology theories. These theories encompass the science of securing agreements between two or more independent parties.

Section 001-2437	Wednesdays 9:00-12:00 ONLINE	Limit: 10	Instructor: B. Rivard	Room: N/A
-------------------------	-------------------------------------	------------------	------------------------------	------------------

CMST 111 – Personal Wellness

An examination of lifestyle behaviours, which have the power to enhance or diminish personal potential. Topics will include physical activity, our personal relationship with food and the impact of culture on our sense of self. Stress management, substance use/abuse, environmental awareness and the process of goal setting will also be discussed.

Section 001-1054	Mondays 15:00-18:00	Limit: 10	Instructor: W. Lindsay	Room: A0340
-------------------------	----------------------------	------------------	-------------------------------	--------------------

STUDENTS PLEASE NOTE: These are the only three elective choices that are eligible for students in the C999 Degree Program.