INTERFAITH RELIGIOUS LEADERSHIP

Merging Theology, Counselling, and Leadership for Pastoral Excellence.

Located at the St. Clair College Main Campus in Windsor, Ontario, the effectiveness of pastoral ministry is deeply rooted in the ability to lead with vision, provide compassionate care, and uphold a strong theological foundation. To empower pastoral workers to fulfill their calling with excellence, this proposal seeks to establish a comprehensive training program that integrates three crucial areas of pastoral development: leadership, counseling, and theology.

By equipping pastors and ministry leaders with the tools and knowledge necessary for effective leadership, compassionate counselling, and sound theological understanding, this program will strengthen their capacity to serve their congregations, guide others through life's challenges, and proclaim the Gospel with clarity and conviction. spiritually equipped but also deeply committed to serving with wisdom, empathy, and integrity.
